

proudly presents:

"Love is in the Air..."

A Celebration of Love during February 2009
featuring signature dishes from around the Mediterranean

For the whole month of February, taking advantage of their warm & cosy settings, both Crepes & Co. restaurants will be offering the most popular of their Mediterranean specials!

Mediterranean culinary delights will include, in addition to signature dishes such as Paella & Tapas from Spain, Couscous & Tajines from Morocco, Moussaka & Mezze from Greece, a nice array of fresh, unique and tasty appetizers & salads, as well as the ever popular mouthwatering desserts!

Couples, lovers of Mediterranean food, will be able to enjoy various options of food-to-share and therefore experience and enjoy more!

...and in order to provide this lovely extra little sparkle of happiness to the already enchanting Crêpes & Co dining experience, wine lovers will be treated with some carefully selected promotional wines representing an excellent value-for-money.

"Love is in the Air..." food & beverage promotion for the whole month of February 2009; another unique dining experience offered by Crepes & Co. for the readers delight
