

LITTLE HANOI

Dear Friends and Customers,

As you probably know by now, Tamarind Cafe on Sukhumvit soi 20 closed its doors in July. However, we have now opened a new restaurant called "Little Hanoi" It promotes a new concept of healthy and delicious Vietnamese cuisine. "Little Hanoi" is located in the New Park Food Hall of Emporium Shopping Center on the 5th floor.

Come and enjoy our now very famous noodle soups Pho (Vegetarian, Seafood, Chicken or Beef flavors), Cha Ca (Grilled Fish), Bun Cha(BBQ Pork), or savory beef wrapped in betel leaves. Do not leave without tasting our yummy homemade desserts!

We use only fresh and natural ingredients with NO MSG or other artificial flavorings. Our intensive cooking process makes our stocks very nutritious and delicious.

"Little Hanoi" offers vegetarian & vegan friendly dishes and we have already added more vegetarian dishes on the menu in December.

We also offer an excellent selection of wine and beer which helps set the tone for a memorable eating ceremony. "Little Hanoi" incorporates comfortable seating and a hip, modern design that really sets it apart from the usual food court dining experience. It is a great place for a healthy quick lunch or a relaxing dinner option for gathering with friends after work!

"Little Hanoi" is open everyday from 10am-10pm. It is located in the Emporium Shopping Center on the 5th Floor (beyond Swensen's Ice Cream). BTS stop is Phrom Phong on Sukhumvit Line.
